Subject: Welcome to the Apprenticeship Portal – Your OTP for Account Verification

Body:

Dear {{first_name}},

Welcome to the Apprenticeship Portal! We are thrilled to have you join India's first dedicated, end-to-end managed apprenticeship ecosystem designed to connect aspiring female candidates with progressive employers.

To complete your registration and secure your account, please use the following One-Time Password (OTP):

Your Verification Code: {{otp}}

Note: This code is valid for 10 minutes. Please do not share this OTP with anyone for your own security.

What's Next?

Once you have verified your account, you can immediately begin building your professional profile and exploring opportunities:

- Verified Safe Workplaces: Browse local opportunities that are extensively rated on safety infrastructure, working hours, and female-first workplace policies.
- Zero-Friction Access: Complete your profile in your preferred regional language. You can use our built-in voice input and OCR technology to make uploading your documents easy and accessible.
- Transparent Tracking: Use your personalized dashboard to track your application status, attendance, and stipend payment history in real time.
- Confidential Support: Your safety is paramount. You have access to a one-click confidential grievance flow for any issues regarding safety, harassment, or payments.

If you did not request this code, please ignore this email or contact our support team through the portal's multilingual chatbot.

We are honored to be part of your career journey as you gain new skills and advance toward your professional goals.

Best regards,

The Even Cargo Team
